

Got Questions? Get Answers!

- Where can I find time-saving ideas from other teachers?
- Where can I find good resources on how to write strong lesson plans?
- <http://askmontana.org>
- Where can I find multimedia resources for my class Web page?
- What are Montana's teacher certification requirements?
- Where can I find copyright information on using videos in the classroom?

Montana librarians online find answers anytime!

Ask Montana is Montana's free online chat service where you connect to a librarian and get real-time help with your research needs – day or night, every day of the year!

Ask Montana is:

- Reliable
- Real time
 - when you need help
- Free
- Fast
- For all Montana residents
- 24/7
- 365 days a year
- Staffed by professional librarians

Your answers are relevant, in context, and from resources available at your library.

Librarians can co-browse Web pages and databases with you to help you find useful information.

Questions can be referred to local and national experts for further follow-up when appropriate.

You receive transcripts of chat sessions in your email for reference.

<http://askmontana.org>

